

CATHERINE EGGER

MANITOWOC - MANITOWOC COUNTY

Occupation: Realtor

Employer: Keller Williams Realty

Catherine was born and raised in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. She was an AFS student to Germany in High School. Catherine attended Baylor University and graduated from the University of Wisconsin–Madison with a B.A. in International Relations and a concentration in Journalism. While in Madison Catherine was the Cross-Cultures Chair for the Wisconsin Union Directorate. She interned at the Wisconsin State Bar Association. Upon graduation Catherine spent 6 months visiting development projects throughout India and Nepal.

Catherine worked in Washington D.C. as both a Government Relations Assistant and Media Relations Assistant for The Nature Conservancy, and then as a Project Assistant for Winrock International Institute for Agriculture and Development where she oversaw the administration for program-sponsored Asian Ph.D. students at Michigan State University. She also coordinated international conferences and for Asian scientists and other special events, including a luncheon for President Corazon Aquino honoring NGOs in the Philippines, which required coordinating with the Philippine Embassy and Secret Service.

Catherine returned to her hometown to raise her family in the 1990s. She worked as the volunteer coordinator for the Manitowoc Historical Society. She was a Girl Scout troop leader and assisted her husband in his construction business. She began a career in Real Estate in 1995. Catherine is a full-time Realtor and joined Keller Williams Realty – Green Bay in 2014. She has enjoyed the opportunity real estate has given her to learn, meet many great people, introduce them to the area, and meet their real estate needs. Catherine has also recently begun assisting several Milwaukee-based film companies with securing investors, site location, securing extras and other logistics.

In 2005 Catherine spearheaded a successful community effort to identify a family displaced by Hurricane Katrina, and rehab and furnish a donated home - which became known as the Katrina House. She has been active in her church serving as an Elder, Sunday school teacher and member of the choir. Catherine has also been active in her community, serving as a board member of Girl Scouts of Manitou Council and Mainly Manitowoc, and committee member for several organizations, including The Marine Sanctuary Task Force and SubFest committees for the Wisconsin Maritime Museum. Catherine is a member of Rotary International and currently a United Way Campaign co-chair. Catherine lives in Manitowoc with her 18-yr old son, Cole. She has been active in community theater, has a penchant for blues music, and enjoys spending time in the outdoors (particularly along Lake Michigan) and nature photography in her free time.

