

REBECCA NICHOLS

MENASHA - WINNEBAGO COUNTY

Occupation: Alderperson
Employer: City of Menasha

Rebecca Nichols is a second-term alderperson in the City of Menasha. First elected in 2013, she enjoys working with residents, businesses and the greater community to make Menasha a great place to live, work and raise a family. During her tenure she has been selected by her peers three times to chair the Administration Committee, which considers much of the city's business before it is referred to the full council for a final vote. She currently serves on the City of Menasha Redevelopment Authority and the Information Technology Committee.

A graduate of New Holstein High School, Rebecca has a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education from UW-Oshkosh. She taught music in Wisconsin public schools until 2008, when she made the decision to be a stay-at-home mom. This made time for engagement in community groups and activities, including her local non-profit neighborhood council where she served three terms as the organization's president. Rebecca was appointed to the Elisha D. Smith Public Library Board, and subsequently ran for public office where she continues to serve the City of Menasha.

Rebecca's husband, Jeff, is Vice President of Lending at Evergreen Credit Union. They have two children now; eight-year old Ava and five-year old Carl. Together they enjoy volunteering, meeting new people, family camping, walks in the woods, books, ice cream, and trips to the beach.
