

US TRAVEL SEMINAR SCHOLAR EXPECTATIONS AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Leadership Wisconsin's Core Values: Building Community, Encouraging Learning, Fostering Understanding, and Acting with Integrity.

The Expectations and Code of Conduct exist to create an inclusive, safe and positive learning environment, as well as ensure we engage in a professional and ethical manner consistent with the mission, values and policies of Leadership Wisconsin and University of Wisconsin-Extension.

Personal Integrity and Professionalism: a personal commitment to acting with integrity and in a manner that professionally represents myself, my seminar peers and Leadership Wisconsin.

- Communicate honestly and openly.
- Contribute to an environment where divergent opinions are valued.
- Demonstrate respect and fairness toward all those with whom I interact.
- Take seriously the privacy and confidentiality of everyone involved in the program.
- Dress in a professional and appropriate manner.
- Take care to ensure that my personal actions do not put myself, my seminar peers and/or those supporting the seminar at risk.
- Conduct myself at all times, both during sessions and during “unscheduled seminar time”, in a manner that positively reflects on the reputation of the program, my seminar peers, and myself.

Accountability: to uphold trust and follow through on responsibilities to myself, Leadership Wisconsin and its alumni, partners, supporters and funders.

- Remain mindful that this seminar is an educational event and learning of the group is priority.
- Serve as a steward of the time, money and resources invested in my leadership development.
- Prepare for the seminar and engage throughout.
- Assure my financial commitments to the program are met.
- Make full and fair disclosure of things that will impact my participation in the seminar.
 - University of Wisconsin Colleges and University of Wisconsin-Extension provides accommodations to people with disabilities. The Office of Equity and Diversity, and Inclusion coordinates these activities. If you would like to request an accommodation, please complete the following form - https://inclusion.uwex.uwc.edu/sites/inclusion.uwex.uwc.edu/files/disability_accommodation_request_form_2016_0.pdf or contact OEDI at oedi@uwex.uwc.edu or (608-262-3969 (711 for relay)).
